

About Promoversity.com

Promoversity.com is the college group and corporate promotional products specialist. Customers like you are our main focus. Unlike those companies you see advertising all over the web or your local ad specialty shop, we've got seriously low prices. And we've got more than 50 years experience in the apparel and promotional products, working with small and large schools and companies and groups like yours. We hope to add you to our list of happy customers.

How We're Better

PRICE: we are constantly searching competitors to ensure we give you the best pricing.

RELIABILITY: we've been doing this for a LONG time and we have the right people and processes in place to consistently deliver quality, custom products to order.

EASE: our product customization module and virtual sample maker are the best in the business, so ordering is quick and simple.
