I am writing to you to today to inform you of the amazing customer service I have received over the past year from your company. Last school year, around the end of March, we had problems with the t-shirt company we were using to order for an event. The cost was extremely high with additional charges for rush shipping and we just couldn't afford to use that company. I wanted to give you knowledge of the wonderful service I receive from Carrie as well as the company as a whole as well as thank her and the company for the fantastic service I receive. We will continue to order from Promoversity as well as refer others to the company for their orders. I truly appreciate great customer service and Carrie exemplifies this and goes above and beyond to help us. Thank you again for a wonderful experience.

Hello Renee, We LOVE the scarves. You did a really nice job on them. And, for the biggest test, the students LOVE them, too. They look great—even better than we expected. They are a really soft and nice material, and just the right length to be worn any of several different ways. Most importantly, the look of them is really good! They work well for both boys and girls. You did an excellent job on the scarves for us. Thank you for everything. And, remember, God is always close to the hard worker, and you, Renee, are a very hard worker. - Bless you, Marilyn
